

I am absolutely opposed to any weakening of the federal no call list law and particularly change any that would impair the Wisconsin no call law. I finally have peace from the incessant calls and I don't relish being "reactivated" by all the vendors who think that they still own me just because I bought something from them 18 months ago.